Two Additional Early Voting Sites Will Open for the November 6 General Election

JACKSONVILLE – In preparation for the upcoming General Election on November 6, 2018, the Duval County Supervisor of Elections office will open two additional Early Voting (EV) sites. One site will be on the campus of the University of North Florida, and one site will be on the campus of Edward Waters College. Both sites will be open to all eligible registered Duval County voters.

Opening the two additional EV sites will be done within the Supervisor of Elections' currently requested budget. The two additional sites will give Duval County voters access to 20 Early Voting locations.

Early Voting will begin on Monday, October 22, 2018, and will run through Sunday, November 4, 2018. Early Voting operating hours are from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. at all sites, except for the 105 East Monroe Street site in downtown Jacksonville. The Monroe Street site will operate from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 10:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

For more information, please call the Duval County Supervisor of Elections office at 904-630-1414.
