Dear Friends,

Election officials statewide agreed that the 2016 presidential election was the most difficult presidential election in Florida's history. Our three successfully executed elections of 2016 are now part of Duval County's history. Without a doubt, this success was because of YOU! You were unified and you maintained your focus on various tasks and challenges, no matter how difficult. Working together as Managers, Assistant Managers, EVID Technicians, Deputies, and Rovers, you overcame two hurricanes, various technical issues, multiple training sessions, a record-breaking turnout, and the most challenging issue – voter concern about election fraud. As a group, your performance exceeded all previous Duval County elections.

The work of our Call Center Team, under the leadership of Arzada Haynes, contributed to our success in 2016. The Call Center handled over 28,000 calls! Their hours were long and trying, but calls were handled by our proficient Call Center agents in a calm, confident, and concise manner. The voters of Duval County who called were given excellent customer service based on observations and feedback both written and verbal from voters. The service was so good, Irene was never seen (an inside joke)!

I received praise regarding your performance from elected officials, the Florida Secretary of State, the local press corps, and most importantly, from my staff and the voters you served.

Although 2016 was a success, we can improve. In 2017, we will improve our staff's skills, our Poll Worker training and recruitment, our education of the voting public, our voter registration, our efforts to improve voter data files, and our connection between Poll Workers and support staff on Election Day.

Our goal in 2017 and beyond is to serve the public in an atmosphere of openness, honesty, integrity, and respect for the sacred right of every citizen who votes.

Please accept my deepest thanks and respect for the contributions each of you made. I sincerely hope you enjoy a wonderful summer.

Yours very truly,

Mike Hogan, Supervisor of Elections

“Our mission is to preserve the liberty and the right to vote for all citizens by providing honest, fair, accurate and accessible elections with transparency and integrity.”

Outreach

Outreach to Duval County's citizens is one of our most important functions at the Supervisor of Elections Office. Outreach involves speaking engagements, voter education, community events, and voter registration drives.

In 2016, our office conducted more than 60 voter drives around Duval County. These drives gave us a chance to work with many local organizations and companies throughout the year.

In 2017, we plan to visit every public and private high school in Duval County to give students an opportunity to register or pre-register to vote. The school voter registration drives provide valuable opportunities to educate future voters on their right, privilege, and duty to vote. We also encourage students to consider becoming future poll workers.

In addition, we are planning numerous voter registration drives across the city. At the drives, Duval County citizens will be able to register to vote, update their voter information, and receive voter education information. While our full-time office staff handles many of our voter drives, we will need assistance from our experienced poll workers.

If you know of a place or an upcoming event that would welcome a voter registration drive, please let us know.

For questions or suggestions, please contact our Coordinator of Outreach, Greg Clark, at (904) 630-8026 or gaclark@coj.net.

Sending Ballots to Voters Near and Far

Military voters, their families, and overseas voters make up 3% of all Duval County voters. Did you know that our office can email, fax, or mail ballots to these voters? Federal law provides that as long as a registered military voter—or his or her dependent—is living outside Duval County, our office can send that voter a ballot by email, fax, or mail. When a voter receives a ballot by email, he or she must print the ballot, vote, and return the ballot (and a signature page) by mail. Moreover, any voter living overseas, whether military or civilian, may request an emailed or faxed ballot. All overseas voters (military and civilian alike) are provided with the additional option of returning their ballots by fax.

You may be wondering, “Do these voters need to print their ballots on special paper?” The answer is no; any type and size of paper may be used as long as the ballot choices and the signature can be clearly seen. Our Canvassing Board, required to be nonpartisan, duplicates the voters’ choices by using the same ballot paper that you issue at the polls. These newly-completed ballots are then fed through the DS 850 as are all other ballots.

The military imposes a demanding lifestyle; these voters take on this lifestyle voluntarily. Having to move frequently creates both predictable and unpredictable obstacles. Using available, certified technology, we do our best to ensure that, along with everyone else in Duval County, the voters protecting our very freedom to vote are issued their ballots without fail.
